The Assemblies are being conducted to bring inspiration, information and challenge to Disciples of Christ concerning "A Crusade for A Christian World," the most inclusive movement ever launched by this Protestant body.

The Crusade began September 1 and will continue to June 30, 1950, with about seventy-five national boards, state organizations, colleges, seminaries and student foundations participating. The theme of the first year is "A Resurgence of Christian Life." Major objectives are designed to strengthen the local church's evangelism, religious education and stewardship, and stimulate its missionary outreach. The Crusade will enable Disciples of Christ to join with other Protestants in support of overseas relief and reconstruction. A maximum financial goal of $14,000,000 will be sought during the Crusade.

A team of nine guest leaders will be in Amarillo for the local Assembly. Director of the team will be Rev. G. Gerald Sias, now of Ponca City, Okla., who is joining the executive staff of the Crusade in Indianapolis, Indiana.

The Assembly will have morning, afternoon and evening sessions and all members of Christian Churches in this area are invited to attend.

Approval Air Port Is Made In Capitol

According to dispatches from Washington, the Civil Aeronautics Administration has approved the proposed airport in Canyon.

Associated Press reported set Canyon up as follows: "Canyon, class 1; $45,000 and $17,500; $20,000 for land, $25,000 for other items. Work: acquire site, provide three class 1 landing strips, taxi strips, building and parking area, access road."

Mayor W. A. Warren, who is in charge of the project, stated this morning that the figures mean nothing to him as they are different than the ones he had talked over with the district engineer at Big Spring. He was advised from the state office at Fort Worth Monday that the airport had been cleared to the Big Spring office. Word is expected at any time from the district engineer.

Mr. Warren stated that so far as Canyon and Randall county are concerned, work may proceed without interruption at any time CAA is ready to start on the improvements.

March of Dimes Appeal Began January 15

Facing a crisis due to the devastating epidemic of 1946, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has set a $24,000,000 goal for the March of Dimes drive, January 15-30.

This is the first time a definite sum has been announced by President Basil O'Connor of the Foundation. It is necessary, he said, so that the situation facing every March of Dimes chairman in the country is fully understood. Campaign chairman for Randall county is Mrs. C. O. Elkins.

At the present time, the reserves of the Foundation are at a very low ebb. With over $5,000,000 sent from headquarters to fight the epidemic in forty states, some funds have had to be borrowed from money set aside for the important work of research. Thus, the $24,000,000 needed will be broken down into these parts: One-half will remain in chapter treasuries. Of the remaining one-half, $5,000,000 is needed by the Foundation to build up its reserves for research, etc., $5,000,000 is needed to replace funds spent for the 1946 epidemic, $2,000,000 is needed to restore the reserve working fund. Preparations for the drive in Randall county are rapidly being completed. Mrs. Elkins announced, and further plans will appear in the News next week.

Puts Labor Peace Foremost

Reaction was mostly favorable—but with reservations—to President Truman's message on the State of the Union to the 80th Congress. The President is shown delivering his address, which lasted 50 minutes and put labor-management peace foremost, to Senators and Representatives assembled in the House chamber.

City Permits on New Buildings and Repairs

Canyon has suffered in its government reports because of the lack of building permits. During the past two years scores of houses have been erected, but few persons went to the trouble to get building permits. As a result no authentic record has been kept of the amount of building, and no reports are possible as to the growth of Canyon during this period of time. This works against the interest of the town.

The City Commission has amended the building permit ordinance as follows:

For new construction, $1.00 for a permit.

For repairs in excess of $250, 50c for a permit.

Under the city building ordinance, the city must approve the installation of utilities. This approval will not be granted in the future until a building permit has been taken out.

Buffaloes Win Two of Three Border Games

The Buffalo basketball team won two out of three Border Conference games this week, and left Wednesday morning for a long trip to Florida.

Arizona State of Flagstaff defeated the Buffs Wednesday night of last week in the closing seconds of the hotly contested game. The score was 45-44.

The Buffs came back Thursday night and defeated Arizona State of Tempe by a decisive score of 56-39.

Both of the Arizona teams had defeated the Buffs in December on the trip west. At that time the Buffs had had little time to get in shape for the hard season ahead.

The third conference game of the week was played with Hardin-Simmons at Burton gym Tuesday night. The Buffs won by a decisive score of 57-31. This game pulled the Buffs out of the three-way cellar position with Tech and Hardin-Simmons.

The Buffs will play Loyola University at New Orleans Saturday night, and will open the Florida tournament at Miami against Furman University on Tuesday night.

On the way home the Buffs will play L. S. U. at Baton Rouge on January 25.

In defeating Hardin-Simmons, Coach Gus Miller used three different combinations of players, and each team made a good showing.

'Okay, Harry, Let's Go!'

Board of Regents Take Evidence From Students, Faculty and Local Citizens, Student Strike, Dec. 13

Newton Harrell and Judge S. F. Kerr of Midland represented the Board of Regents for State Teachers Colleges Friday and Saturday in taking testimony of faculty members, students and citizens who appeared to give such information as they chose regarding the student strike of December 13.

Judge Kerr, a former district judge, brought a court reporter, and statements made by the witnesses were taken down and will be transcribed for each of the nine members of the Board. Two other members of the Board were appointed to be here but were detained.

A large number of witnesses were before the examining committee during the two days.

The testimony will be sent to each of the nine members of the Board of Regents at once in order that each may have time to study the evidence before the next regular meeting of the Regents. Whatever action is taken by the Board will be announced at this meeting.

Owing to the large amount of testimony received it will require some time and a considerable amount of study for the members of the Board of Regents to reach a decision.

Good Interest In Union Services

The five New Year services held by five churches of Canyon the week of Jan. 6-10 attracted considerable interest, in spite of snow and cold weather most of the week. Attendance averaged 114, with the low on Monday night at the Methodist Church and the high on Friday night at the Assembly of God. In two preceding years, the attendance climbed to a high on Friday. Other services were held at the Christian, Presbyterian and Baptist churches on the other three nights. Pastors exchanged pulpits, with all five pastors preaching once each.

An offering was taken each night which amounted to $62.09. After paying publicity expenses of $24.50, the remainder was put in a local charity fund. Hubert Thomson of the Methodist church is chairman of the Association of Pastors which sponsored the meetings.

Combined Sunday School attendance on January 5th at these churches was 726 and a goal of 1,000 was set for January 12. Although the goal was not reached, there was a good increase when 899 people were present in the five Sunday Schools.

West Texas State Attains Unity

Following a number of conferences between the students of West Texas State College and President J. A. Hill, a statement was issued late last Wednesday evening which was reached after the News had gone to press.

The statement was signed by the President, by officers of the Veterans organization, and by members of the students organization. The statement has met with general approval among the students, faculty, and citizens of the Plains.

The statement reads: January 8, 1947, Canyon, Texas. To Whom Concerned:

We, the undersigned, view with deep regret the circumstances that have recently brought the unfortunate misunderstandings and troubles to the campus of the West Texas State College. We do not attempt to assess the blame upon any one individual or group. We recognize that mistakes have been made on both sides. But that is no longer a matter of major importance. We are willing in the interest of the greatest good to the greatest number, to let bygones be bygones and get together on a program of better education and better administration for all. Such a program recognizes the equal status of all students in the institution, whether involved in the recent disturbance or not.

Recognizing the fact that the differences that have arisen on both sides are due, no doubt, to a lack of understanding between the officers, teachers, and students of the college community, we favor a closer correlation of efforts through a wider diffusion of information about all problems of common interest. To this end we recommend that the college paper, bulletin boards, and possibly other agencies be used more freely by both students and faculty.

On the one hand the administration asserts that it craves the criticism of students, faculty, and friends, and it is willing to sit down with any individual or group and consider all problems of common concern. It would seem unnatural for the administration not to desire every possible assistance toward the building of a greater West Texas State. Hence, no student need fear any disciplinary treatment at the hands of the administration if he comes in a mutual spirit of cooperation and respect for the legal processes of college management.

On the other hand, students, too, have their rights and deserve to be heard in a respectful manner by any and all administrative officers. Such officers are under moral if not legal obligation to take whatever time is needed to understand the student's problem and help him solve it if possible. After all, the institution exists for the benefit of the student and nothing should be left undone to help him accomplish all sound educational objectives. Moreover, the student deserves to know as much as possible about the institution—its problems, its program, its purposes, its resources, etc.—all to the end that he may better accomplish his own purposes and be a more intelligent and better citizen of the campus.

We accept the principle that whatever contributes to the making of a better West Texas State benefits students, ex-students, faculty, administration, and all concerned. This one objective shall be the guiding influence in all we think and say and do as members of this educational body.

We, the representatives of the Veterans Association, the Student Association, and the Administration of West Texas State College, hereby agree to work in unison toward the above ideals and purposes, recognizing that each and all carry great responsibility for the development here of a truly great institution of higher learning.

Signed: J. A. Hill, President West Texas State College. Leo R. Steinkoenig, Steven L. Self, Beryl D. Clinton, Jack J. Witham, Fred M. Standley, Jr., Executive Council Veterans Assn. Frank Barrett, Bill J. Montgomery, Margaret Lair, Officers of the Student Association.

Colorful Kid

By Howard Beckler

It is a well known fact that Marty Burns is the smartest bozo in the leather pushing racket, insofar as the managing end of the game is concerned.

That's how he happened to get his hooks onto the Walla Walla Kid, and came to make the one and only mistake of his career.

This knuckle duster came bristling into the office one winter day with a crash and a bang. He tossed six newspaper hounds off the much-scarred mahogany of Marty's desk, and then spoke his piece to the great man himself.

"I can lick anybody in the joint," he told Marty. "Including you, Burns. But I ain't gonna." Marty Burns opened his mouth and closed it again. He was mildly shocked.

"You're going to be all right, Kid," Marty told him. "And about your brains, I'll take care of that. I've got a set of signals worked out for your next fight. It'll be just as though I'm right in the ring with you. I run my hand through my hair, you cross your right. I pull my left ear, and you hold him off with your left jab. I tweak my nose and you hook him to death with the left."

In his fight with Big Boy Riley, the Kid dropped Riley for the count with a steaming right cross, while Marty is tweaking heck out of his nose, calling for a left hook. That kind of got under Marty's skin. "What's this mean, Kid?" Marty tweaked his nose for a demonstration.

"I've been holding out on you, boss. Yeah. I've two faults instead of one."

The Kid looked at him. "Your nose itches, boss," he said. No, the Kid wasn't exactly an Einstein.

After that Marty tried every known method of signaling his fighter, but the Kid kept on winning and doing the opposite to what the signal called for.

Before long, they signed with Tiger Jones, who was right next to the champ. The Kid was a magnet at the gate.

Marty Burns wore himself to a shadow worrying about the Jones fight. He didn't sleep nights, trying to figure a way to get his brain into the ring with the Kid. He walked the streets. He smoked fifteen cigars a night. The Kid could never take Tiger Jones without his, Marty's, help. He was positive of that. Then two days before the fight, the Kid gave him the answer.

He was reading his press notices in the Morning Gazette. "Hey, boss, listen to this: THE WALLA WALLA KID IS PERHAPS THE MOST COLORFUL SCRAPPER TO HIT THE COUNTRY IN A DECADE."

"Colorful," Marty mused. "Colorful. That's it! Colorful, colorful!" He slammed the Kid on the back. "You like colors, don't you, Kid?"

"It's like with me, boss."

"All right. This is simple, Kid. So simple, I think even you can understand it. Now, listen close." Marty talked slowly to make sure it would penetrate the mystic thickness of the Kid's flaming skull. "I take three cards, of three different colors. I hold up the red card and you cross your right. Green card and you jab with the left, and blue card you hook the left."

They were hanging from the rafters at the Armory the night of the fight. Tiger Jones didn't waste any time loosening up the Kid's lower lip with a wicked wallop.

The Tiger was rushing. Marty flashed the blue card. A steaming left hook would slow the Tiger to a walk. But the Kid was backing away jabbing with his left. The Tiger crashed through and dumped him in the corner for an eight count. That's just about the whole story. Four rounds later, the referee stepped in and pushed a badly beaten Walla Walla Kid to his corner.

Reporters circled Marty and the Kid after he had showered and dressed. "What beat him, Marty?" They shot the question at the little manager.

"His one and only fault beat him," Marty tapped the red head of the Kid. "Nothing between the ears."

The Kid managed a grin through shattered lips. "I've been holding out on you, boss."

"Yeah?"

"Yeah. I forgot to tell you that I'm color blind."

Figures Say Few Widows Re-Wed

Court Admits Odds Against Her and They Climb Directly With Age.

WASHINGTON.—What'll you bet that a widow won't remarry? You can take it from "The American Remarriage Table" that it goes like this:

Just about 12 out of 100 women will remarry within six years after their husbands' deaths if they're 10 to 20 years old. That means the odds are better than 1 to 7 that any one widow in that age group will take another spouse, says the Associated Press.

Almost 8 out of 100 who are 21 to 25 will remarry within six years after becoming widows, making the marrying odds on any one of them better than 1 to 11.

The odds, as you guessed, climb directly with age.

The novel tabulation was worked up in the prewar period by the Casualty Actuarial Society after the fashion of insurance companies' life expectancy tables.

May Bust Odds.

It may be that postwar widows will bust the odds out of shape one way or the other.

But the 16-man U. S. Tax Court—with only one member dissenting—has accepted it as the McCoy in its first test as court evidence.

The table made its debut in an estate tax case involving a question of how much would go to the dead man's divorced wife under an agreement whereby she was to be paid $450 a month until her death or remarriage.

That amount was to constitute a deduction from tax liability, if it could be figured.

The tax collectors said it couldn't be computed because there couldn't be any guide as to whether or when a woman might remarry.

The court held otherwise, although it bore in mind that much depends in remarriage on the individual woman—looks, disposition, assets, opportunity and whatnot. So it stuck by the table, although it commented:

Perhaps Not Perfect.

"The figures . . . may leave much to be desired in the way of soundness and accuracy."

But—ah, yes—What about the case of widows past 25? Well, here's what the table says:

Of these 26 to 30, 6 in 100 will remarry within six years after widowhood (the table doesn't predict anything beyond the six-year stage). Translated into odds on any one, that's about 1 to 16.

Among those 31 to 35, almost 4 in 100 will remarry, making the odds 1 to 24.

At 36 to 40, the odds lengthen to 1 to 49 as only two in 100 remarry. From 40 to 45, the chances are slightly less, but at 45 to 50 they're down to 1 in 100.

Remarriage probabilities of women divorced after 50 are pretty small.

Investigation of the Government's lending operations will be demanded by Rep. Jesse P. Wolcott, (R-Mich.), new chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee. Both domestic and foreign loans, past, present and future, will be probed.

As we understand it, the Soviet will give up arguing if we will give up the atom bomb.

VERBS

An irate citizen living close to a railroad yard wrote the railroad company the following complaint: "Gentlemen: Why is it that your switch engine has to ding and bang and hiss and pant and grate and grind and pug and bump and chug and hoot and toot and whistle and wheeze and jar and jerk and howl and snarl and puff and groan and thump and boom and smash and jolt and screech and snort and slam and throb and roar and rattle and yell and smoke and smell and shriek like hell all night long?"

Rural Neighborhood Progress Contest Explained

The neighborhood progress contest is sponsored jointly by the Farmer-Stockman and Extension Service. It involves a total of $3,000.00 in cash to be used to further community development. It gives some community an opportunity to earn as much as $1,000.00 for this purpose.

Any rural neighborhood in Texas may compete, including all families living within an area defined as a neighborhood. Ten prizes will be awarded.

The contest is being conducted for the calendar year 1947. Only achievements recorded during the period of the contest will be considered. Prize money won shall be used for some worthy project in the neighborhood designated by that group at the beginning of the contest. Scoring of the neighborhoods will be made on a basis of points for progress and achievement.

County Agent Harold E. Shahan feels that it is impossible for him to contact each person of Randall county before the closing date of the entries, so for additional information, consult him or Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Home Demonstration Agent before January 28, 1947.

Texas Leads Nation Building Farm-to- Market Roads

The Texas Highway Department is further advanced on its farm-to-market road program than any other highway department in the United States according to Tom K. Eplen, president of the Texas Good Roads Association. This statement is based upon a report just released by Thomas H. MacDonald of the Public Roads Administration in which Texas is listed in the top three highway departments in number of contracts awarded and the total number of miles involved in these contracts.

On total miles under contract Texas led all other states according to Mr. Eplen. Pennsylvania ranked first with 1,117 highway projects under contract between Jan. 1 and Dec. 28, 1946. These projects comprised 1,715 miles of road construction costing $57,700,000. California awarded contracts for 344 projects on 1,025 miles of highway at a cost of $53,700,000. Texas led with 685 projects costing $52,500,000 on 4,650 miles of roadway. "A large portion of the mileage placed under contract in Texas," Commissioner MacDonald said, "was for improvements on secondary or farm-to-market roads." The three-year program on federal aid secondary road system in Texas contemplates the expenditure of $60,000,000 for these much needed roads. The total sum of $52,500,000 reported in the contracts executed last year in addition to state highways provided for the construction of 2,073 miles of farm-to-market roads under this federal aid program.

President Eplen expressed himself as being highly gratified over the fine record that had been achieved in the adoption of this program.

Men Can Stand Blast of Atom

Bikini Tests Show Soldiers In Dugouts and Tanks Bear Up Well.

WASHINGTON. — That the Bikini tests indicated that soldiers in dugouts and tanks could weather the blast and heat of a near-by atomic bomb and go on fighting, is the opinion of General McAuliffe.

Their artillery and heavy equipment, and even their ammunition when kept in containers, also apparently would still be usable, he continued.

The general, member of the joint research and development board concerned with tomorrow's weapons, based his conclusions on his own observations as deputy commander of the joint task force at Bikini and on a recently completed report of army ground forces.

He emphasized the incalculable value of the atom bomb for strategic attack against cities, war plants and naval bases, but explained that it probably would not become useful as a tactical weapon against troops in the field. At the same time, he noted that the Bikini tests might not be entirely conclusive as related to army equipment because they were carried out primarily under conditions of naval warfare, against ships.

Protection in Dugouts. Analysis of experiments with army ground force equipment at Bikini, in which precise measurements of blast, heat and radiation were made, indicate that dugouts should give good protection against blast and heat, even fairly close to the bomb, according to General McAuliffe. The degree of protection against the instantaneous radiation of high-penetration rays or later radioactivity would depend, among other things, on the relative position of the dugout and its construction.

The general said that study showed that tanks, artillery and other heavy equipment close to the aerial burst of the first test bomb were "practically undamaged." He added:

"From that you would conclude that heavy equipment as close as 500 yards from a bomb burst would still be usable and could continue to fight or get away from the area."

Even though radiation might penetrate to crews of tanks they might be able to carry on for some time before becoming casualties.

Ammunition Unfired. Although heavy equipment resisted the atom bomb blast, lighter paraphernalia — amphibious "duck" trucks, jeeps, searchlights, radio equipment — did not; it was "heavily damaged" at distances as much as 1,200 to 1,500 yards, General McAuliffe said.

Quartermaster stuff — clothing, blankets and similar material — suffered from a still unexplained freakishness of the bomb. Material located at "very great distances" caught fire and burned.

On the other hand, experiments with ammunition belied some forecasts. In only rare instances did it catch fire or explode and then only when exposed without containers close to the blast.

Plastics changed texture, caught fire or fused under the flash of fierce heat and the pressure of the blast — but rubber tires on vehicles near the target center showed remarkable resistance.

Much of the packaged foods and other small supplies showed no effect of radiation. Exceptions included some soap and powders which seemed to retain radioactivity longer than other stores.

Cop, Protege of Benton, Quits Beat for Art's Sake

KANSAS CITY, MO.—A policeman, with the help of Missouri's famous artist Thomas Hart Benton, is quitting his beat for art's sake.

For the last five years 33-year-old Charles M. Murray has been a patrolman by day and an embryo painter by night. Now he is heading for the open spaces around Phoenix, Ariz., to devote his full time to the canvas.

Murray had been with the police force two years when another officer's landscape painting attracted his attention and sent him to the easel, where at first he had more trouble than he found on his beat. Then some one suggested he seek Benton's help.

"After that, whenever I was in trouble, Benton helped me out," he recalls.

In five years he has produced 20 Missouri landscape scenes and as many more of police work. In Arizona he hopes to link the West's colorful past with the present.

Benton dropped in at the police station to bid Murray goodbye.

Pellagra Disease of Great Concern Among Physicians

Pellagra, although not a communicable disease, is one of great concern to public health officials in Texas for many people die of pellagra in this state every year. The disease is caused by the lack of certain essential foods, and as it comes on slowly may not be recognized until the victim begins to have the more serious symptoms such as sore mouth, stomach trouble, and reddening and scaling of the skin.

"When these symptoms appear, the disease has been present for some time," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox,

State Health Officer. "The longer an individual has pellagra the harder it is to cure. It is advisable, therefore, to watch for the early symptoms such as nervousness, indigestion, and burning of the hands and feet, and if these symptoms appear, treatment should be instituted at once. In its advance stages pellagra may become so severe as to not only cause physical suffering but seriously affect the mind."

Pellagra is not contagious, Dr. Cox pointed out, but he emphasized that it can be prevented entirely by including the right kinds of foods in the daily diet. These essential foods include milk, fresh meat, whole wheat products, brewer's yeast, salmon, as well as tomatoes and other fresh fruits and vegetables. The inclusion of these foods in the daily diet will prevent pellagra, and as in the case of any disease, it is better to prevent it than to try to cure it.

We see many schools have been burglarized in the Panhandle. All of the operations look exactly alike. It is called knob knocking and peeling by the officers. When the burglars raided the vault and safe of West Texas State they secured about $300 in cash. We note from the exchanges that the haul has been running from a few hundreds to several hundred dollars. On the face of it, this may seem a small amount for the risk of serving a term in the penitentiary. But as a matter of fact it is more cash than is carried in the average safe of a business house. Unless the burglar wants to go into big time stuff and rob a bank, the returns of cash in these school robberies has been on a par with the average case. Furthermore, the burglar is working with almost security, as few schools can afford a night watchman. We have not kept track, but it seems to us that approximately a dozen school jobs have been pulled off during the fall and winter. All of the cases bear close resemblance, and points to the fact that they are done by the same person or persons.

We have known Congressman W. R. Poage of Waco since our legislative days. He made a fine record in Austin, and is making a fine record in Washington. He has realistic ideas about running the government. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce wrote all members of the Texas delegation demanding that they vote for a reduction of the budget far below that recommended by the President. Poage comes back asking the demanding organization to name the items which they wish to see trimmed. Having received hundreds of indefinite letters during our legislative career, we hear the spunk of Poage in asking for a definite statement. This is free advice to all: When you write for your Legislator or Congressman, be specific. Unless you point to a definite thing which you want, he will know that your letter is inspired by some one who knows how to grind his own axe.

So far as we know now, there will be no elections in Texas this year. Therefore, asks the man on the street, why pay a poll tax since there is a remote chance to vote. That is the theoretical way to look at the question. But let's be practical. The poll tax assessment is against your real property, if you own real estate; your school system of Texas needs that money, and cannot operate without your contribution, as small as it may be, but of great necessity is that several constitutional amendments will likely be submitted to the voters in September when every voter will want to express his opinion. If there is such an election and you are not armed with a poll tax receipt, you will wish that an old Missouri mule had kicked you in the pants in January and made you pay your poll tax.

Senator W. Lee O'Daniel almost announced for re-election the other day in Washington. That is no surprise. There is no one in Texas who doubted that he would be a candidate for re-election. His plea is that he must stay in Congress in order to continue sponsoring his bill to limit the term of office for the President and members of Congress. So far as his bill is concerned it will probably never muster more than a dozen votes. It is likely that the Republicans will put over a bill limiting the term of office for the President to two terms. But when it comes to limiting the tenure of office to members of Congress, well that is a horse of a different color. Every member of Congress hopes that the voters of his district will find him the indispensable man.

The Russians have always been vastly impressed with American know-how. One American mechanic who worked in a watch repair shop in Berlin walked in with a clock under his arm and requested, "Please take this apart and make wrist watches out of it."

Maybe Russia should swap her Politburo for a Polite Bureau.

WHAT IS A "SURPLUS"

There are favored industries whose managers escape the trials and tribulations of the taxpayers. Such industries are accorded the privilege of tax-exemption and count as profits, income that would be taken as taxes from other productive enterprises and private citizens.

A good example is the tax-exempt Bonneville power administration that claims an accumulated surplus of $16,327,000 from seven years of power sales which totaled $83,494,000. But it doesn't mention that it paid no taxes during seven years.

Had the property been taxed some twenty cents on the dollar of gross income, as were investor-owned plants of like character, this so-called surplus would have been inadequate to take care of taxes, let alone provide any profit.

Bonneville is a privileged, tax-exempt competitor of every business which must pay taxes before it can figure a surplus. It would have to be a pretty poor businessman who couldn't show a profit if he was allowed the same tax exemptions accorded publicly subsidized power plants. By its own figures, Bonneville is not showing the same efficiency as is required of business-managed utilities which pioneered electric power development, while paying taxes to support government before earning a profit for investors.

The business-managed power industry's slogan is cheaper power through greater production; Bonneville's cry is cheaper power through tax-exemption.

HELPING HAND OF AMERICA

The responsibilities that came to the United States as a result of victory in the war are not fully known to the American people. The history-making events that are taking place in Europe and the Far East naturally reach the headlines—but many another important job is being accomplished in obscurity.

An example of this is found in the Pacific Islands. The Marshall group, which is typical, belonged to Germany until 1914. Then Japan, as one of our Allies in World War I, seized the islands, and her authority was legalized by a League of Nations mandate in 1922. Japan held the islands, using many of them as naval and air bases, until we freed them near the close of World War II.

Thus, purely as a consequence of war, the problems of thousands of natives living on scores of islands became our problems. And it is pleasant to report that the United States Navy, which is the administrative agency, is taking these problems very seriously.

The Navy is training officers in the arts of military government. It is making aggressive efforts to re-establish a system of adequate education. It is paying particular attention to health and sanitation. It is attempting to revitalize what little industry and commerce the islands are capable of maintaining. Its purpose, in sum, is to assist the inhabitants to stand on their own feet.

This is no simple task. An immense amount of work is being done by the Navy. Thus, the hands of America reach out to tiny islands whose very names are unknown to all but a few persons.

MANDATE TO CONGRESS

In the days following the abrupt termination of the coal strike, practically every newspaper and columnist in the country had something to say about that struggle. There was unprecedented unanimity of opinion that the coal miners' arrogant, public-be-damned leadership had been roundly defeated, and that Congress must take immediate action to curb labor excesses.

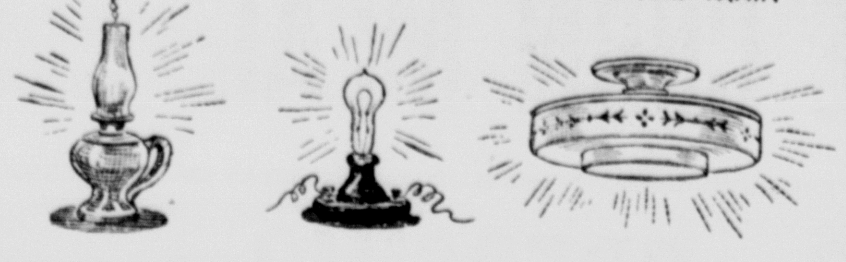

This point of view was shared by papers of all political and economic views, published in every section of the nation. The Chicago Tribune said, "The people expect their new Congress to write new labor laws." The Kansas City Times said, "This nation cannot trust its security to domineering individuals." The New Orleans Times-Picayune said, "Public necessity requires there must be no recurrence of strikes against the nation's safety."

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

THE WAY OF PROGRESS IN AMERICA

WHEN THE STAGECOACH GAVE WAY TO THE RAILROAD TRAIN—

WHEN THE KEROSENE LAMP WAS REPLACED BY THE ELECTRIC LIGHT—

WHEN THE HORSE AND CARRIAGE WAS SUCCEEDED BY THE AUTOMOBILE—

IT MEANT INCREASED PRODUCTIVE CAPACITY FOR THE NATION—MORE JOBS AND MORE PRODUCTIVE JOBS FOR THE PEOPLE. AND THE BENEFITS HAVE ACCRUED TO ALL OF US IN THE FULLER MEASURE OF LIVING THAT HAS COME TO DISTINGUISH OUR DYNAMIC DEMOCRACY.

The New York Herald Tribune said, "Revision of the Wagner Act is indicated, also legislation to make unions amendable within reason to the antitrust laws and subject to suit as legal entities for breach of contract." The extreme left-wing New York Daily Worker urged miners to "take hold of their union and reinstitute a democratic control of it."

So it went, throughout the land. This was the voice of the American press, speaking on behalf of an angry and outraged people. It was not, for the most part, a punitive voice. It did not cry out for labor's blood. It did reaffirm the fact that the public interest is paramount to all other interests. It did state that no man, no group of men, is above the law. Those are the truths that must be reflected in coming labor legislation.

HOW LONG WILL THE EGGS LAST?

One of the immediate questions of the time is just how far labor can go in its program of more money for less work and still leave solvent industry to provide the jobs.

The CIO claims that industry can boost wages by around $6,000,000,000 a year without raising prices, a statement which recent wage-price trends completely contradict. On top of such demands for increased wages, it is estimated that labor may now sue industry for as much as $6,000,000,000 in back pay for time spent in getting to work. This "portal-to-portal" pay is an indirect means of raising wages with no increase whatever in worker productivity — paying men for inactive hours. In other words, labor costs are again skyrocketing.

Industry and the consumer look like a plump goose—but labor may wake up one morning and find the goose is no longer able to provide the golden eggs that mean employment.

The selection of General George Marshall as Secretary of State to succeed Jimmy Byrnes was a master stroke on the part of the President. Marshall has never indulged in politics. But every foreign nation knows that as a military man he spoke out with a clear cut conviction that he knew what he was talking about. There will be no sidestepping or pussyfooting about General Marshall.

When the Republicans undertake adjustment of the excise taxes strongest demands for relief will come from tobacco manufacturers. Tobacco is the only agricultural commodity (except margarine) subject to excise taxes.

Judged West Texas State's most prominent students from a standpoint of service, leadership and scholarship, the 20 smiling juniors and seniors pictured above represent five-sixths of the total 24 selected for mention in the 1947 edition of "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges."

If you owned a business and were going to hire a man to run it, would you have the outgoing manager make the plans for operating the business for the next two years?

That's the way it is done in Austin. The outgoing governor submits the budget. Wouldn't it be common sense for this to be done by the man freshly elected by the people and who, moreover, will have the responsibility for the next two years?

When the famous lawyer, Clarence Darrow, was just beginning his career, an opposing attorney kept referring to him as "that beardless youth." At last Darrow said, "A king once sent a young nobleman to the court of a neighboring king. The monarch, displeased at the youth of the ambassador, said, 'Does your king lack men that he sends a beardless boy?' The ambassador said, 'If my king had supposed that you imputed wisdom to a beard, he would have sent you a goat.'"

Darrow's opponent said no more on the subject.

What this country needs more than a good five-cent cigar is a man's undershirt that can not be put on backward. In other words, any way the owner puts it on, it will be on right.

In a grocery store in the edge of Mount Pleasant, there is a tiny Mexican dog who at his owner's bidding (and at the promise of a marshmallow) will dance, and then buck like a horse. And if you believe that you can't teach an old dog new tricks, Pete was six years old when he was taught his amusing little stunt.

The recent great hotel tragedy in Atlanta, Ga., should cause authorities in Texas to look around to see that we don't have any 10 or 15-story hotels without fire escapes. Proper safety measures taken now will prevent such disasters.

Amarillo Production Association Reports Good Year In 1946

With $310,000 of its own funds, the Amarillo Production Credit Association is now "completing a big job started 13 years ago by leading ranchmen and farmers of the Northwest Panhandle," according to Byron Gist, president.

Members now own $188,000 of paid-in capital stock in this organization and have $122,000 in surplus to back it up.

"We started this association back in 1933 when everybody needed credit loans were hard to get. We had to start from scratch on one of the biggest and most important undertakings a bunch of Panhandle farm and ranch people ever faced," Mr. Gist recalled.

The Amarillo Production Credit Association serves Potter, Randall, Deaf Smith, Oldham, Carson, Arm-

CHS Future Homemakers Plan February Sweetheart Banquet

80 Guests Are Expected To Attend FHA Social

FHA members had a meeting Thursday night, January 9, in the Canyon auditorium, with seventeen members present.

Before the business session was started, they sang several popular songs with Donna Erwin at the piano.

Plans Banquet

The meeting was called to order by the president, Frances Gooch. Plans were made for the Valentine social called the Sweetheart Banquet, which will be held at the Methodist Church some night during Valentine week.

Decorating and social committees were appointed. The decorating committee consists of: Janey Forester, Valeta Haines, Dorothy Gafford, and Ava Dooley. Those serving on the social committee are: Dorothy Butler, Laverne Hinders, Muriel Faye Cope, and Weedon Young.

Janey Forester is to make arrangements for the use of the church.

Miss K. Davis and Mrs. T. C. Gooch are in charge of the menu.

Announcements Later

Announcements will be placed on the bulletin board for further information concerning the food each member is to furnish and about 80 guests are now expected to attend the banquet.

A new ruling was made that if an officer of the organization is absent more than three times during the year without good reason, he will be impeached and relieved of his duties.

HOW SWEET YOU LOOK!

All dressed up and nowhere to go? A mistake in this case, because when one faces a camera he has been somewhere, (and no joke!)

We had three pleasant days last week of seeing the students dressed in their best. The boys wore suits and ties while the girls were decked out in their most becoming dresses. (Confidentially everyone seemed miserable.)

Seriously though, the students cooperated as a whole with the annual staff and Southwest Studios to such an extent that everything went off pleasantly.

These pictures are very good and are ones the students will be glad to see in the annual for the next quarter of a century.

Think of that! Hope some of us improve in looks as the years go by, don't you?

Subscribers Make Yearbook Pledge

Two hundred thirty-eight students made down payments on the "Soaring Wings" which is twenty more than last year.

These payments of one dollar were taken by Guy Brant, Valeta Haines, and Geraldine Small at different times.

Forty students in the grade school made down payments which was more than double over last year.

Due to lack of space in the annual, group pictures of the grade school will be used. These were taken by Britain's Studio in each room.

Approximately all students that want annuals have ordered them.

The annual is now in compilation with Geraldine Small as the editor, and Valeta Haines as assistant editor.

Four High School classes had regular meetings last Wednesday to perfect plans for having pictures made for the annual and for considering socials and other business of the moment.

Seniors discussed having pictures made for the annual and others later on for plaques to be placed in the hall.

Any senior may take the Pepsi-Cola test which will provide a four year scholarship for the two winning contestants in the state.

Austelle Burrus, president of the junior class, appointed Geneva McDougal, Wayne Davis, and Clifford Burtz to perfect plans for a class party Thursday, January 16. There was also a report on the finances and the distribution of left over play tickets and programs.

18 Students Claim January Birthdays

According to a recent issue of the "Life" magazine, if you are born in January, "you are a patient planner, steady as a rock, conservative, but forceful. You are trustworthy, reliable and good at executive jobs. You lack enthusiasm, but take a fatalistic attitude toward life, and are afraid of taking risks. Stop brooding and start getting excited about your work and family."

Famous men born in January are: Robert E. Lee, born January 19, 1807, and Franklin D. Roosevelt, born January 30, 1882.

Spanish Club Has Mexican Dinner

Following a regular CHS tradition, the Spanish Club journeyed to Amarillo for a dinner in the Mexican Inn, Wednesday evening.

In a typical Spanish setting the members were served tacos, chili con queso, chili con carne, tamales, enchilados, frioles, arroz, dulces, tea, and tostados.

After the dinner the club attended the show titled "The Time, The Place, The Girl" at the Paramount theater.

The students were transported in a CHS school bus.

"I feel that my students benefit by such occasions," states Mrs. A. K. Knott, sponsor. "They learn to appreciate very much our Spanish citizens here and our neighbors south of the border."

The future District Attorneys and Attorney Generals, who are now attending CHS, spent Friday afternoon in District Court learning the ropes (procedures of trials) which will no doubt be of inestimable value to them in years to come.

WT High Beats Eagles 25-19

Abbott, Wright, Walters Get All-Tournament Awards

Canyon High lost a heart-breaker in the finals Saturday night at the Tulia Tournament. WT High beat the Eagles 25-19. Canyon never did threaten the Calves until the last two minutes when they pulled within six points of the rival Canyonites.

In moving to the finals, Canyon defeated the Happy Cowboys 33-24; ran over Floydada 50-19; and edged WT High 18-16 Saturday morning. The road for WT was by defeating Silvertown, Tulia, a defeat handed them by the Eagles and then winning the finals.

Abbott Leads Scoring

Billy Abbott led the scoring in the four tournament games with 36 points. Charles Wright was second with 33 points.

The Eagles placed three men on the All-Tournament team. They were Abbott, Wright, and Walters. WT placed three boys as did Tulia. Happy had one man on the team.

Eaglettes Lose

As an opener, the Canyon Eaglettes played the Nazareth girls losing 22-15. Bobbie Ford and Martha Jean Avent tied for high-point girl with five points each.

Individual scoring for the year is as follows: Abbott, 150; Wright, 77; Burrus, 77; Long, 54; Walters, 50; and Guthrie, 45.

The dubious "honor" of fouls goes to Burrus with 38. The rest in order are: Wright, 29; Walters, 24; Abbott, 23; Guthrie, 21; and Long, 18.

Week's Games

Friday night the Eagles play host to the Claude Mustangs and Saturday night the Canyon quintet journeys to Plainview.

Eagles Bring Second Trophy Home from Tournament

Trophy number 2 (a second place reward) is the booty that the Eagles brought back from the Tulia Tournament of last Friday and Saturday.

This emblem, 16 inches high with an ebony pedestal, is placed on a double graduated base. Two figures in bronze, representing basketball players passing a ball, stand on each side of the pedestal which is topped with a bronze figure of a winged goddess holding a laurel wreath signifying victory.

On the front of the pedestal, is a plaque engraved with these words, "Second Place Tulia Tournament, 1947."

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Donnell of Plainview, visited their grandson Charles Donnell, Monday, January 13, and had lunch with him in the cafeteria.

That they may attend his talks, students will be dismissed from classes at 10 the first two days and at 11 the third.

This is the schedule of talk topics, as released by Mrs. T. V. Reeves, Dr. A. Kirk Knott and Dr. S. H. Condon, planners of the meetings: Monday, 10, "The Passion for Perfection"; Tuesday, 11, "Paradox of Life"; Wednesday, 12, "The Religious Way."

Special music for these assemblies will be arranged by Glenn A. Truax and Miss Pauline Brigham. The College choir, choruses and a sextet will give several numbers, and on Wednesday Thelma Mercer, accompanied by June Wimberly, will sing "Perfect Prayer."

Other Engagements

Besides the morning addresses, Dr. Smith will be with the Student Christian Association Monday night and with the Canyon Rotary Club Tuesday noon. Ministers from all churches in the Panhandle have been invited to hear him Tuesday afternoon at 2:30.

Dr. Smith will reserve certain hours to be announced later for private individual consultations.

"Not to be confused with religious emphasis week, which has been observed here during the fall for about seven years, this succession of talks is nevertheless intended to stress religion," says Mrs. Reeves.

Temperature of Living Rooms at 68 to 70 Necessary

With the advent of cold weather, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued some timely advice concerning room temperature and its relation to health.

"It is very important that inside temperature be maintained at around 68 to 70 degrees," Dr. Cox said. "Thousands of homes are continually overheated in the winter, and a degree of heat is often demanded that would not be tolerated in the summertime."

In a room that is overheated, the body pores are open, and physical harm may result when outside temperature is encountered. Colds, influenza, bronchial troubles and even pneumonia may take advantage of this bodily abuse, and take a serious toll in sickness and even death.

"An inside temperature of from 68 to 70 degrees is not only more healthful, but actually more comfortable," Dr. Cox said. "When, added to these factors, the resulting economy is considered, it might be well to check up and see what your thermometer reads. A room temperature within the range suggested, plus the careful maintenance of proper humidity, will prevent needless sickness and protect the good health of your family."

A one-unit, all-electrical heating and cooling machine will be in mass production this year. Easy to install, it will sell at a "popular" price.

Griggs Returns For Four Talks

Noted Philosopher Will Lecture Here Thursday, Friday

Continuing a tradition that has long been part of the cultural aspect of this College, Dr. Edward Griggs, American platform artist exemplar, will return here Thursday to deliver a series of addresses presenting his philosophies on literature and living.

So thoroughly has Dr. Griggs endeared himself to faculty and students that he has been designated a "visiting professor" of West Texas State.

Treats Four Topics

With a total of four lectures scheduled, the widely famed scientist, astronomer, and student of literature, art and music, has announced the following subjects: "Washington, the First American," Thursday morning, 11 o'clock; "Hamlet, the Bystery Mind and Personality," Thursday afternoon, 2:30.

"Franklin, the Schoolmaster of the Colonies," Friday morning, 11; "The Tempest, Shakespeare's Final Philosophy," Friday afternoon, 2:30.

In Who's Who

Born in Owatonna, Minnesota, over 80 years ago, Dr. Griggs is listed in "Who's Who" as one of the greatest lecturers in the United States. His latest book, "Moral Leaders," was published in 1940.

Because he specializes in speaking to young people, Dr. Griggs has probably addressed more college and university students than any other lecturer living today. At one time, he was professor of philosophy at Stanford University. Extremely versatile in his choice of subject matter, he has more than 100 topics in his current repertoire.

Dr. Griggs' audiences will listen to him in the auditorium of the administration building.

Praise of Buffs Comes From Kansas Man

Joy Sudderth and her father, H. S. Sudderth, received a letter last week from one of their friends, Jess Phillips, of Emporia, Kansas. Phillips saw the Buffaloes play during the recent tournament in Emporia and this is his comment to the Sudderths:

"I got a chance to see your boys play last week. The W. T. boys were here for our tournament. Not only were they here, but they walked off with the championship. They met our team on the last night for the title and beat our team. The team from Canyon is really a great outfit and they deserved to win. They just out played and fought our boys. My daughter's husband plays on the Emporia team and he told me your team was the best he had ever played against. I am sending you the program of the tournament, and you will notice there are only two men on your team under 6 feet tall."

Increased Number of Benefit Payments Made Monthly

Monthly payments in the form of Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance amount now to $25,343.22 in the Amarillo area, according to a statement from J. R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo Social Security Field Office. This represents an increase of 12% in total payments and 10% in the number of payees as compared with July 1, 1946.

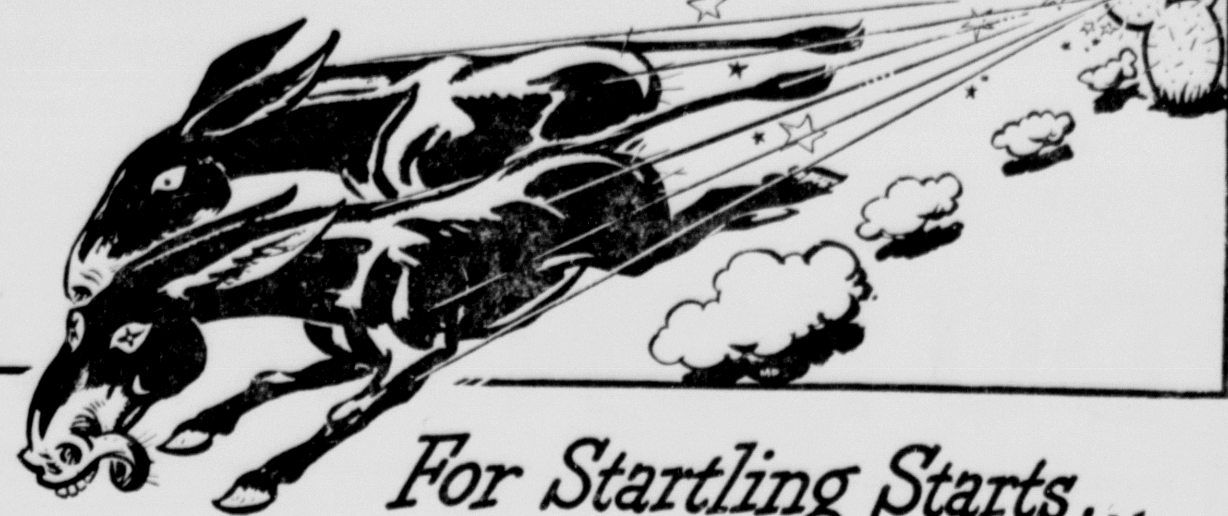

Although an increase was expected, the unusually large increase was no doubt due to the beginning of monthly payments to the survivors of World War II veterans in those cases where the veteran has died within three years of his discharge. Legislation authorizing such payments was passed in August of 1946, and since that date there has been a steady increase in the number of such claims filed in the Amarillo office. Payments to veterans' survivors are retroactive to the date of death of the veteran if a claim is filed before February 10 of this year. After that date payments are retroactive for a maximum of only three months, as in other types of Social Security payments. For this reason, survivors of deceased veterans are urged to contact the Amarillo Field Office as soon as possible.

In the 26 counties served by the Amarillo office there are 1622 persons drawing monthly payments. 540 of these are retired workers, 150 are wives of such workers, 669 are children of retired or deceased wage earners, and 263 are widows of deceased wage earners. In addition to the regular monthly payments, a total of $8,954.52 in lump-sum death benefits was paid in this area in the last six months in those cases where none of the survivors was entitled to monthly payments.

California fruit growers will campaign this year to further stimulate use of oranges by babies. They already account for an average of 400 oranges a year as against 125 for adults.

Coal operators will spend $477,000 on research in 1947 to find ways to keep home and industrial users from turning away from coal.
